About Us

The Hub:

The Women's Business 2nd Chance Hub is a program that aims to create meaningful and lasting opportunities for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Women in Western Sydney.

We do this by providing access to quality learning, entrepreneurship, and employment through our educational and vocational training workshops. We have an open-door policy, so you are more than welcome to come in and have a yarn or visit our website and social media platforms to keep updated on what's happening at the Hub!

The Hub is open Monday to Friday, 9am-5pm to all our Aspirants. Drop in for a cuppa and a yarn.

Our Aspirants:

Here at the Hub we call our Women Aspirants which means someone who aspires to achieve their goals in life.

"Don't Aspire to make a living, Aspire to make a difference"

We Offer

Workshops

Our workshops are focused on assisting our Aspirants to gain relevant skills, build confidence, create hobbies, connect with community and culture.

Courses

The hub offers a range of social, cultural and educational courses to our support our Aspirants on their journey to equip, evolve and empower them to reach their ultimate goals in life.

e-Learning

Online content available to access at any time for our women to gain skills in various areas and prepare for work.

Mentorship

Our Reach Out Offices conduct a detailed Training and Support plan with each Aspirant that is culturally appropriate to ensure the goals that are put in place is tailored to their needs.
